

Orientation Leader

Becoming a Leader

As you think back to when you first moved onto campus, you might remember a sea of orange shirts welcoming and cheering you on. The enthusiastic orientation leaders helped you feel at home and made your move onto campus all the easier. If you're interested in providing that same experience to the incoming first-year and transfer students, consider applying to serve as an orientation leader. There are approximately 100 positions available.

Please note: Due to schedule conflicts, you are unable to participate as an OL if you are selected for the following positions: RA, SLA, Student Programming Board, SGA Executive Board, SWAB Executive Board, and ICC Executive Board.

Requirements

- Must have a GPA of 2.0 or above
- Must be in good standing with the university (not on academic or disciplinary probation)
- Must be studying on the Malibu Campus for the fall semester
- Return to campus on Thursday, August 8 at 2 PM for training prior to New Student Orientation
- Available for all of training (Thursday, August 8 – Saturday, August 10) and New Student Orientation (Monday, August 12 – Friday, August 16)

Duties

- Help new students move into on-campus housing
- Answer parent and students questions
- Assist new students and families around campus
- Lead small group activities with new students
- Keep the flow of the orientation schedule
- Be a friendly face and positive presence
- Support NSO team in other duties as assigned

Benefits

- Two orientation leader shirts

- Meals during training and orientation
- Early access to on-campus housing (if you have an agreement for the Fall Semester)
- Leadership opportunity
- Build community prior to the start of the academic year
- Serve your peers
